You are invited to join the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Administrative Professionals Association (NCCEAPA). We are administrative assistants, support specialists, and office professionals from every county in the state, the Cherokee Reservation, and the campuses of NCA&T University and NC State University.

As you may have learned already, North Carolina Cooperative Extension is part of a nationwide system known as the Cooperative Extension Service.

Established by Congress in 1914, the Cooperative Extension Service is a partnership of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), state land-grant colleges and universities, and county governments.

Membership offers opportunities on both district and state levels. Districts generally meet twice annually to enhance the following:

- Quality Training Practices
- Professional Development Opportunities
- Annual Conferences—District-State-National
- Association Business Actions
- Fellowship-Camaraderie and Lifetime Experiences

Discuss with your director in advance about support and travel funds for these approved opportunities.

During your career, you may be interested in leadership positions in the various associations. In this package you will receive a copy of our South Central District Committee list and guidelines for you to review.

Purpose and Objectives

NCCEAPA was organized in 1973 to establish and maintain a structure through which members may be united in a professional development and improvement effort for the benefit of themselves and the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service.

The objectives of this Association are:

- First, and most important, we shall strive to always perform our duties with conscientious dignity to help make the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service the best in the nation.
- To be recognized in our profession as professionals.
- To request State Administration to provide opportunities for professional improvement.
- To exert much effort to have County Extension Office Support staff classified under one unified system.
- To invite district and state personnel to meet with us with suggestions, information, answers to pertinent questions, et cetera, so that we will always stay abreast of the latest in Extension.
- To continue our aim to avail the general public of the many services offered by the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service.
- To improve working relationships and communications between agents and support staff in regard to planning time and work.

Structure

NCCEAPA is aligned and organized into districts representative of North Carolina Cooperative Extension. The NCCEAPA Executive Board consists of the President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, and Treasurer. The NCCEAPA Board of Directors consists of the elected officers, immediate past president, elected district officers, and state committee chairs.
